

MAKING LIFE BETTER

Giving Every Child the Best Start in Life What the Research Says Part 2

Social and Emotional Learning “What Works”: A Making Life Better Seminar

10:00am – 2:00pm Wednesday 4th March 2020 Malone House, Belfast

Chaired by Brendan Bonner, Assistant Director, Health & Wellbeing Improvement
Public Health Agency

- 9:45 Registration (tea/coffee available)
- 10:00 Welcome Address
Edmond McClean, Deputy Chief Executive and Director of Operations
Public Health Agency
- 10:10 The PAX Good Behaviour Game, Northern Ireland Trial
Dr Joanne O’Keeffe, Research Assistant, Queens University Belfast
- 10:35 Incredible Years® Autism Spectrum & Language Delay Parent Programme: Early Findings from Implementation in Northern Ireland
Deirdre McAliskey, Assistant Director, National Children’s Bureau.
- 11:00 Tea/Coffee
- 11:15 Key Note Presentation
Social and Emotional Learning: What Works and Beyond
Professor Neil Humphrey, Manchester University.
- 12.15 Panel Discussion Q&A
- 13:00 Closing Remarks
Maurice Meehan, Head Health & Social Wellbeing Improvement,
Northern Area, Public Health Agency

A light lunch will be served after the event close

To book a place, please email mlbnetwork@hscni.net with your name, organisation, name of event and any dietary requirements by Wednesday 26th February 2020.