

We would like to invite you to participate in the public consultation to inform the future Lifeline Crisis Response service being undertaken by the Public Health Agency.

The current Lifeline contract is due to end 31 March 2015 and the Public Health Agency is keen to engage with the public and relevant stakeholders to ensure that the future Lifeline service specification is appropriately informed and the future services are fit for purpose.

The following documents are available below as attachments:

- Letter - Consultation on the Lifeline Crisis Response Service
- Consultation Context Paper To Inform Future Procurement of the Lifeline Crisis Response Service
- Response Questionnaire – Lifeline Crisis Response Service
- Equality screening - Lifeline consultation process. NB: There will be a further equality screening of the Lifeline specification.

Please note: All responses must be received by 5pm on Tuesday 24 June 2014.
