

Conference on minority ethnic health and wellbeing issues in Northern Ireland

Wednesday 12 October 2011

King's Hall, Balmoral, Belfast

All day event of presentations and workshops highlighting local good practice as well as learning from elsewhere across the UK.

Topics: Health improvement and protection; welcome and one stop services; mental health; children's issues; access to services.

The conference programme and presentations from the plenary session are attached below. Please contact Joyce Kinnaird by email at joyce.kinnaird@hscni.net regarding the availability of the workshop presentations.

To view the press release go to www.publichealth.hscni.net/news/one-stop-shop-helps-meet-health-and-wellbeing-needs-minority-ethnic-communities

Print