

Monday, 04 December 2017

Service Development and Screening

From January 2011, the Northern Ireland cervical screening programme no longer invited women aged under 25 to attend for screening. In addition, the screening interval for women aged 25-49 was reduced to every three years.

This booklet describes the rationale for the change in policy so that primary care staff and smear takers can provide appropriate and accurate advice to patients.

Details

Format

A4, 8 pages, booklet

Target group

Primary care and smear takers

Downloads

Attachment

Size

Cervical Screening Primary Care Booklet LR 11_17.pdf 1.2 MB

Print