Service Development and Screening

The poster is for breast screening for women over 70. It features a woman with short white hair, wearing a pink top, with her hands clasped in front of her chin. The background is a light pink gradient. In the top left corner, there is a logo for 'Breast Screening' with a stylized 'S' and a checkmark. In the top right corner, there is a logo for 'HSC Public Health Agency'. The text 'Over 70?' is written in a large, bold, pink font. Below this, the main message is written in a bold, pink font: '1 in 3 women who get breast cancer are over 70, so don't assume you're past it.' Below the main message, there are two columns of text. The left column contains two paragraphs: 'A lump isn't the only sign of breast cancer. If you notice any changes to your breasts, tell your doctor straight away. Finding it early makes it more treatable and could save your life.' and 'After your last invited breast screening you can still be screened every three years. Just phone your local screening unit. For more information visit www.nidirect.gov.uk/breast-screening'. The right column is titled 'Breast screening units' and lists four units with their contact numbers: 'Belfast Health and Social Care Trust (also covering South Eastern HSCT) Tel: 028 9033 3700', 'Northern Health and Social Care Trust Tel: 028 9442 4425', 'Southern Health and Social Care Trust Tel: 028 3756 0820', and 'Western Health and Social Care Trust Tel: 028 7161 1443'. At the bottom left, there is a small line of text: 'Produced by the Public Health Agency | www.publichealth.hscni.net'. At the bottom right, there is a small vertical number '60110'.
