

Business hours: Messages are monitored 9.00am to 5.00pm, Monday to Friday.

For Northern Ireland residents: The Public Health Agency is the primary regional organisation for health protection and health and social wellbeing improvement in Northern Ireland.

For those outside of Northern Ireland: Please contact the relevant organisation in your region.

Medical advice: Please note that we cannot provide individual medical advice.

Message response times: We receive a high volume of messages and may not always be able to respond to each one. If your query is urgent, you can contact us by phone or use the contact form below.

Phone: 0300 555 0114 - Calls to 0300 numbers are charged at a local rate and cost no more than calls to UK numbers starting 01 and 02. These calls are included in inclusive minutes as part of most call packages from service providers. For more information on charges for 0300 numbers, please visit Ofcom website.

Corporate office:

Public Health Agency (PHA)
12-22 Linenhall Street, Belfast, BT2 8BS
Northern Ireland

Other locations:

<https://www.publichealth.hscni.net/offices>

Location

54.5946056, -5.9298087

Your Name

Your Email

Telephone

Message

Please do not share any personal or health related information or any other sensitive data. This field is intended for general comments or feedback only. Submitting personal information may compromise your privacy and is not in accordance with our privacy policy.

For information on how we use your personal data including your rights, see our privacy notice.

Send message

Print