

Screening is important because early detection of disease often produces better outcomes for patients. At this stage treatment may be more effective, avoiding significant ill health and in some cases premature death.

PHA staff provide particular expertise on service evaluation and review, assessment of the health and wellbeing needs of the population, and evidence-based practice.

They also have a key role in supporting the development, implementation and evaluation of regional service frameworks.

Latest News

World Cancer Day: Be aware of the signs and symptoms

Women encouraged to take up life-saving cervical screening when invited

Be breast cancer aware this October

AAA event highlights need for men to get life-saving test

Children Get Diabetes Too - Parents Urged To Be Aware Of The Signs Of Diabetes in Children and Young People

Latest publications

Newborn Hearing Screening in Northern Ireland Annual Reports

Recurrent pregnancy loss

Newborn blood spot screening \(English and translations\)

Breast screening and breast implants

Northern Ireland Breast Screening Programme

Print