

Thursday, 09 January 2025

Health and Social Wellbeing Improvement

On average two people die every week in Northern Ireland as a result of an accident in the home. More accidents happen in the home than anywhere else. There are countless home safety hazards – being aware of them is the first step to preventing accidents.

This leaflet includes some of the most common home accidents and offers tips on how to help prevent them.

Details

Format

A5, 8 pages

Target group

General Public

Downloads

Attachment	Size
home safety leaflet - adults.pdf	1.24 MB
Print	