

You can reduce the risk of

Sudden Infant Death

The safest place for your baby to sleep is on their back in a moses basket or cot in your room for the first six months.

Never, ever fall asleep with your baby on an armchair or sofa.

Never, ever allow anyone who has been smoking, drinking or taking drugs (including medication) to share a bed with your baby.

