

Whooping cough

Get the vaccine to protect your baby

You can help protect your baby from whooping cough (pertussis) by getting vaccinated from week 16 of your pregnancy.

For more information talk to your GP or midwife or visit www.publichealth.hscni.net

