Alison Briggs
Health and Wellbeing
Principal Officer
Co–Production describes the relationship between service providers, in this case the council and service user, the community, that draws on the knowledge, ability and resources of both to develop solutions.
Our Process

Community Health Champion OCN Level 2 training course (2 cohorts)

Vision statement, logo, asset map, local history booklet, time-bank,

Duneane Community Champions established as a “collective”

Community Spirit Day – 19th March 2016
Duneane Community Champions are a proactive, enthusiastic collective committed to promoting health and well-being and creating a strong and connected community.
Our Building Blocks of Co-Production

- Reframing how we work
- Develop a common Agenda
- Recognise Assets
- Make connections to mobilise assets
- Allow time
Jenny Hanna – Community Development and Health Network (CDHN)
Layers of Evaluation and Evidence

Individual

Community

Strategic

Improved Health and Well Being
What is next?

• Working with CENI to develop a Framework to showcase the evidence.

• Developing a guide to how co-production approach has worked for Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council.

• Further linkages to the Community Planning Process.
For further information contact:

Alison Briggs
Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council
alison.briggs@antrimandnewtownabbey.gov.uk
028 90340160

Or Jenny Hanna
CDHN
jennyhanna@cdhn.org